

Upcoming CRA events

Want to see us in action? Check out our spring schedule of events.

April 14: Commercial Recovery Associates Managing Partner Robert Handler will participate in a panel discussion at “REO/Workout Lenders Workshop -- Let’s Make a Deal!,” hosted by the Real Estate Investors Association. Handler will join senior loan workout executives as they discuss managing nonperforming loans and bank-owned real estate assets. For more information and registration, visit www.reia.org.

May 3: Handler will join several restructuring industry members to discuss the current outlook for turnaround and workout transactions at “Is the Distressed Industry Distressed?” Monomoy Capital Partners will host the seminar. The event will feature four separate panels, and speakers will include bankruptcy practitioners, commercial lenders and private equity players. For information and registration, visit Is the Distressed Industry Distressed?

May 4, 9 p.m. Central on CNBC: “American Greed: Nose No Bounds.” Set your DVR now! Handler will share inside details of Commercial Recovery Associates’ involvement in the Mark Weinberger case on “American Greed,” CNBC’s documentary series on infamous white-collar criminals. As the receiver for the clinic formerly owned by Weinberger -- a Midwestern physician who pleaded guilty to 22 counts of health-care fraud -- Commercial Recovery Associates got an inside look at the disgraced doctor’s operations. Don’t miss this unique perspective on an explosive tale that has garnered international attention.